

Across:

3. a formal statement of an opinion agreed on by a committee or a council, especially by means of a vote
4. a period of time when somebody/something has to wait because of a problem that makes something slow or late
6. without the owner present; not being watched or cared for
8. to make somebody unable to think clearly or understand something
10. large or important enough to have an effect or to be noticed
11. a stamp or mark put in your passport by officials of a foreign country that gives you permission to enter, pass through or leave their country
12. to stop something from being done or used especially by law
13. to say that you disapprove of somebody/something; to say what you do not like or think is wrong about somebody/something
14. a person who tries to persuade people or countries to stop arguing or fighting and to make peace
15. the line that divides two countries or areas; the land near this line
19. to demand that something happens or that somebody agrees to do something
21. liking or good at sport
26. to have a particular weight
28. the place at a port or an airport where your bags are checked as you come into a

Down:

1. having or showing no interest in somebody/something
2. behaviour that causes pain or suffering to others, especially deliberately
5. a social occasion or party attended by a group of people who have not seen each other for a long time
7. not able to sink
9. the existence of many different groups of people in one society, for example people of different races or of different political or religious beliefs
16. a range of many people or things that are very different from each other
17. to talk in a friendly informal way to somebody
18. a person making unnecessary excitement, worry or activity
19. to say or do something that makes somebody stop what they are saying or doing
20. to go down below the surface or towards the bottom of a liquid or soft substance
22. feeling sure about your own ability to do things and be successful
23. something that you can hear
24. to record your/somebody's/something's name on an official list
25. to be badly affected by a disease, pain, sadness, a lack of something, etc
27. an angry argument or disagreement between people, often about a personal country

- 29. the fact of being male or female, especially when considered with reference to social and cultural differences, not differences in biology
- 31. to be different from somebody/something
- 32. to join together with other people in order to do something as a group
- 33. consisting of pictures of flowers; decorated with pictures of flowers
- 35. a lack of respect for somebody/something
- 39. a trip that you go on for pleasure or education, usually with a group of people and lasting no more than one day
- 40. to stop somebody from doing something; to stop something from happening
- 41. detect
- 42. extremely good
- 45. a feeling of great pleasure
- 48. to give information about somebody/something to an enemy
- 52. a system of government in which all the people of a country can vote to elect their representatives
- 53. to trick somebody or make them believe something which is not true
- 55. a plan of action agreed or chosen by a political party, a business, etc
- 57. the willingness to accept somebody/something, especially opinions or behaviour that you may not agree with, or people who are not like you
- 59. the act of separating people or things; the state of being separate
- 61. (usually used with can, could or be able to, especially in negative sentences or questions) to have enough money or time

matter

- 30. a short thin piece of stiff wire with a sharp point at one end and a round head at the other, used especially for fastening together pieces of cloth when sewing
- 34. a formal choice that you make in an election or at a meeting in order to choose somebody or decide something
- 36. one of a regular series of magazines or newspapers
- 37. the fair treatment of people
- 38. the qualities that make somebody/something different from other people or things
- 43. the fact of a number of people not having a job; the number of people without a job, the state of not having a job
- 44. that you can get, buy or find
- 46. to some extent; fairly, very
- 47. angry, and behaving in a threatening way; ready to attack
- 49. an accident in which a vehicle hits something, for example another vehicle, usually causing damage and often injuring or killing the passengers
- 50. the state of being alone and not watched or disturbed by other people
- 51. a move to a more important job or rank in a company or an organization
- 52. to state something firmly and clearly
- 53. a person who has the legal right to belong to a particular country
- 54. to treat one person or group worse/better than another in an unfair way
- 56. to interest and amuse somebody in order to please them
- 58. having retired from work
- 60. completely different in nature or to be able to buy or to do something

63. freedom to live as you choose without too many restrictions from government or authority

66. something that you do to make somebody believe something which is not true, or to annoy somebody as a joke

67. a competition between people, animals, vehicles, etc. to see which one is the faster or fastest

68. the fact of being equal in rights, status, advantages, etc

69. the feeling of wanting to be in the same situation as somebody else; the feeling of wanting something that somebody else has

72. a period of time, usually in history, that is different from other periods because of particular characteristics or events

73. if somebody/something deserves something, it is right that they should have it, because of the way they have behaved or because of what they are

76. to make somebody feel sad because something that they hope for or expect to happen does not happen or is not as good as they hoped

77. to look for information on a computer, especially on the Internet

78. to pay no attention to something

79. connected with the job of somebody who is in a position of authority

80. to watch somebody/something carefully, especially to learn more about them

83. an arrangement with a company in which you pay them regular amounts of money and they agree to pay the costs, for direction

62. completely necessary; extremely important in a particular situation or for a particular activity

64. something that you can choose to have or do; the freedom to choose what you do

65. a long thin piece of strong hard material, especially wood, used, for example, for making floors, building walls and roofs and making boats

70. violent behaviour that is intended to hurt or kill somebody

71. a design or picture that represents a country or an organization

73. no longer alive

74. great respect and admiration for somebody

75. to think that somebody/something is good, acceptable or suitable, to say that something is good enough to be used or is correct

78. serious and often involving a lot of action in a short period of time

81. a piece of paper, wood or metal that has writing or a picture on it that gives you information, instructions, a warning, etc

82. the quality or state of being steady and not changing or being disturbed in any way (= the quality of being stable)

85. the belief that some races of people are better than others

86. high in rank or status; higher in rank or status than others

87. the feeling of being sorry for somebody; showing that you understand and care about somebody's problems

88. a place where people can exchange opinions and ideas on a particular issue; a example, if you die or are ill/sick, or if you lose or damage something

84. to say that somebody has done something wrong or is guilty of something

86. an official meeting or series of meetings between the leaders of two or more governments at which they discuss important matters

88. able to change to suit new conditions or situations, able to bend easily without breaking

91. a fixed idea or image that many people have of a particular type of person or thing, but which is often not true in reality

92. if a person or their skin tans or is tanned, they become brown as a result of spending time in the sun

93. a small group within a community or country that is different because of race, religion, language, etc

95. a person who likes reading very much

97. containing people of different types or from different countries, and influenced by their culture

99. an unreasonable dislike of or preference for a person, group, custom, etc, especially when it is based on their race, religion, sex, etc

103. the system of money that a country uses

105. a person who talks a lot, especially a child

meeting organized for this purpose

89. the use of violent action in order to achieve political aims or to force a government to act

90. a person whose job is to do dangerous things in place of an actor in a film/movie, etc; a person who does dangerous things in order to entertain people

94. to get away from a place where you have been kept as a prisoner or not allowed to leave

96. the legal right of belonging to a particular nation, a group of people with the same language, culture and history who form part of a political nation

98. extremely good

100. that is not fixed in one place and can be moved easily and quickly

101. the fact of belonging to a particular race

102. true or right at all times and in all places

104. to ask for a seat, table, room, etc. to be available for you or somebody else at a future time, to keep something for somebody/something, so that it cannot be used by any other person or for any other reason.